

Dansville and Wayland Square Off Neighbors to Play In Cage Feature

Dansville and Wayland will renew their long-standing rivalry on the WCS court Friday night as the teams continue in the strong Division One of the Livingston County Conference.

Both squads are coming off losses. Dansville played a strong game but fell 75-62 at Honeoye Falls-Lima Tuesday night. Wayland was defeated by Caledonia-Mumford by a 55-41 score.

At HFL, Coach Jim DeBell's Mustangs started fast and opened a 21-15 first quarter lead but the hosts came back for a 33-31 halftime advantage. It was 51-47 at the three-quarter mark and HFL opened it up with a 24-point fourth period flurry.

Bob Mahus with 18 points, Mike Wamp with 14 and Ken Heiman with 10 paced the DCHS scoring. Adding to the total were Dave Hamsher with nine, Jeff Jaeger with eight and Brad West with three. The winners scored 14 of their final quarter points at the foul line and were 20 of 30 overall. Dansville hit on 10 of 15 shots at the stripe.

Last Friday, Dansville went out of the conference at Byron-Bergen and lost 63-52. The B-B squad led all the way, 13-8 at the quarter, 28-20 at the half, and 42-34 at the end of three quarters.

Scoring for Dansville were Mahus with 14, Heiman and Hamsher, each with 10, Ed French with seven, Jaeger with five, Wamp with four and West with two. Here again, foul shots spelled a big difference. Byron-Bergen was 21 of 35 at the line while Dansville made 14 of 16 shots.

Keshequa High's cage squad scored a 53-46 victory over Warsaw Tuesday night. Rob Huff and Todd Galton paced KCS in scoring, each with 14 points.
